Showers Fall In Widely Scattered Parts Of Texas

By the Associated Press

Widely scattered showers fell over Texas today.

During the morning rain fell at El Paso, Guadalupe Pass, Abilene, Big Spring, Fort Worth, Dallas, Tyler, Wichita Falls, Plainview and Sweetwater. The fall was very light.

It was cloudy over the northern two-thirds of the state and partly cloudy along the lower coast and the Rio Grande Valley.

The cool front that moved into the state early in the week was about stationary, running from near the coast to the Del Rio and El Paso areas. Temperatures were a little warmer.

Early morning temperatures ranged from 54 at Amarillo, Childress and Cleburne to 76 at Brownsville, Laredo and Galveston.

Heavy rains that fell Tuesday and Wednesday had let up. A three and one-half inches at Knox City, Texas, and saw smoke. However, a few showers were scattered over the southwestern part of the state.

The general forecast for tonight and tomorrow called for slowly rising temperatures and partly cloudy skies. Showers could be expected in the El Paso and Big Bend country.

Polio Past Peak In United States For This Season

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—(AP)—The nation's polio rate is going down, and the public health service says the epidemic has passed its seasonal peak.

The agency reported a drop in the number of new cases for the third week in a row—from 5,119 in the week ending Sept. 3 to 2,628 in the week ending Sept. 10. The figures do not include Pennsylvania, which has not reported.

Up to last Saturday, cases reported for the year (except in Pennsylvania) totaled 26,384, compared with 14,132 during the same period last year.

Two Occupants Of Missing Airplane Are Found Dead

WAYNOKA, Okla., Sept. 15.—(AP)—Five air force paratroopers today found the wreckage of a plane missing since last Thursday—burned and its two occupants dead.

The plane with its two victims was found seven miles southwest of Waynoka in rough sand hills country near the Cimarron river.

Burned beyond recognition were J. W. McBrayer, White Deer, Texas, and William E. Cline, Amarillo, Texas.

They were returning from Cleveland, Ohio, to Amarillo when they were lost in murky weather and crashed.

The paratroopers reported they could make out the name J. W. McBrayer on the plane.

The country in northwest Oklahoma where the plane crashed was so rugged that the bodies had to be carried out to ambulances on the highway.

First tip on the whereabouts of the plane came from a Freedom, Okla., farmer, who heard the crash and saw smoke last Thursday.

It was only today that an air force plane from Lowry Field, Colorado, spotted the crashed plane.

Paratroopers of an air rescue unit flew to the scene and descended. Making the jump were Master Sgt. J. F. Ryan, Staff Sgt. A. W. Roffiter, Sgt. G. O. Fealock, Sgt. B. R. Nuckles, and an unidentified airman.

The search turned to two Waynoka area when a Freedom, Okla., farmer, Darrell Blythe yesterday said he heard a crash last Thursday and saw smoke. However, he said he did not think any more about it until he read of the search.

New Attacks On Communism Seen From Conference

Acheson and Bevin Widen Talks To Include Schuman

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—(AP)—New blows against Communism in Europe and the Far East were forecast by diplomatic authorities today. They viewed these as coming from the cold war strategy talks now building to a climax here.

The conference which Secretary of State Acheson began with British Foreign Minister Bevin Tuesday is being widened today to include French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman.

Top subjects for discussion on the three power level were believed to range widely. They include development of the new Western German state, a review of negotiations with Russia for an Austrian treaty, exploitation of the split between Yugoslavia and Russia, and the erection of Far Eastern barriers against the spread of Communism outside China.

On this last point, Schuman said on his arrival at New York last night that military advances by Communists in the Far East are "very serious for France and the rest of the world." He said it is necessary "that we find a solution quickly."

In addition it was expected that the three diplomatic chiefs would agree to hold a common front in the forthcoming U. N. general assembly meeting on all issues involving Russia. This appeared particularly true for the prospective fight over Anglo-American charges that Russia's Balkan satellites have violated their peace treaties by disregarding pledges to protect their people's human rights.

The three Communist countries against the charges are directed are Bulgaria, Hungary and Romania.

Coal Miners And Southern Mines Near Showdown

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., Sept. 15.—(AP)—John L. Lewis and the Southern Coal Miners Association moved nearer today to a showdown battle over non-payment of the miners' welfare-pension royalty.

Lewis apparently lost a round in trying to get the Cleveland Trust Company to pressure James D. Francis, leading Southern operator, into paying overdue installments to the welfare fund.

Francis, head of the Island Creek and Pond Creek Coal Companies, has been classed by Lewis as the ring leader in a southern revolt against the 20-cent-a-ton royalty which feeds his pension fund.

Lewis assumed that the Cleveland Trust Company, as trustee for the Liberty E. Holden estate, had control of the two companies.

In a telegram yesterday to Cleveland Trust Board Chairman I. F. Freiburger, Lewis asked the bank to use its influence to get Francis to pay up and avoid a "social convulsion" in the coal fields.

But Freiburger replied that Cleveland Trust controls neither company.

"The Cleveland Trust Company is a trustee of the Holden Trust," he said, "but not a controlling stock interest in Island Creek Coal Company, and only a very nominal stock interest in Pond Creek Coal Company," Freiburger said.

It was learned also that the powerful Pocahontas Fuel Company, headed by O. L. Alexander of New York, and the Tierney Mining Interests, headed by the brothers Laurence E. Tierney, Jr., and Lewis C. Tierney of Bluefield, have held back their July payments.

These and Francis' firms together produce nearly 20 million tons yearly. With other Southern companies, they are believed to be holding out the miners' fund may be as high as $500,000 to $1,000,000 in July payments alone.

Negroes Fail To Get Injunction Against Party

JEFFERSON, Sept. 15.—(AP)—A group of Marshall negroes were denied an injunction prohibiting the Citizens party from denying them ballots.

Federal Judge T. Whitfield Davidson yesterday, in effect, said the negroes' right to vote had not been denied because they could have voted their candidates on the Democratic ballot.

The Citizens party is a Harrison county organization. Its candidates ran only for county and precinct offices.

Judge Davidson said the negroes could have cast write-in votes on the Democratic ballot or could have petitioned the Democratic party to place the names of their candidates on its ballot.

Eight negro witnesses testified they had been denied ballots in the Citizens party primary but had voted in the Democratic primary the same day.

GIVE YOUTH A CHANCE

(AN EDITORIAL)

In this fast moving atomic age of competitive effort a college education is a must for the young man or woman seeking a lucrative position.

When the young man or woman makes application for a job now the first question asked is "do you have a college education?"

The boys and girls of today are the men and women of tomorrow and the future of the city, county, state, nation and the world, for that matter, will be in their hands for direction and guidance.

As insurance for a better world in which to live all possible and practical means to offer the opportunity of a college education to every boy and girl should receive serious consideration.

Navarro county voters will have the opportunity Thursday, September 22 to do much toward the education of the youth of this section.

The voters will have the opportunity to vote bonds in the sum of $500,000 for the construction of a permanent junior college plant.

The cost is little—twenty cents on the one hundred dollars valuation coupled with eight cents for maintenance—total twenty-eight cents—as compared with the returns.

All of the benefits cannot be measured in dollars and cents although the saving to parents will amount to thousands of dollars in the years to come.

Parents who have paid the freight on a four year college course in another city know the cost.

The saving in money is only incidental. The fact that every boy and girl in Navarro county will have the opportunity to get two years of college work and remain at home should be reason enough for every person in this county to be in favor of the bond issue.

The junior college deserves the wholehearted support of the residents of Navarro county.

Founded on nothing by men of vision, the school has grown and developed into one of the major educational institutions in this section of the state.

And this growth has only started. If the bond issue is voted, and there is every reason to believe that it will be, a modern, permanent plant will be constructed without delay, a college that will be the pride of Navarro county.

Give the boys and girls a break in getting an education. Give them the chance to take their rightful places in a life of hard competition.

Vote for the Navarro Junior College bond issue Thursday, September 22.

Cotton Lures Laborers—Local Texas Employment Commission Having Difficulty Finding Workers

By DON MORRISSEY Daily Sun Staff

A definite shortage of maids, dishwashers, yard men and common laborers is being noted recently by the local office of the Texas Employment Commission.

W. B. Reedy, local TEC director, said all the above were "out in the cotton fields, gathering in the cotton crop."

"For the second time in as many years, the cotton harvest has stepped in and lured the brawny worker to its lucrative fields, and away from city life," said Reedy.

He added, "the snowy-white cotton fields and the possible earnings for the laborer are the main lure."

Likewise, calls for maids, yard workers, laborers, etc., are being received, and in many instances the calls are for workers to take the place of those who have gone to the cotton fields," Reedy said.

The transition from laborers to harvest hands has been very noted and the local office has been unable to locate either common labor or to fill the demands of contractors, processors, etc., much less jobs to fill domestic and service jobs.

Navarro county's cotton crop, estimated to go over $10,000,000, is expected to dump thousands of dollars into the hands of local fields within the next few weeks.

Any individual, or group, willing to try a hand in this annual classic, may be able to find work in the local TEC office at 113 West Fourth avenue.

Through Sept. 14 there has been 256 non-farm job openings listed at the local office. Only 152 of the jobs have been filled.

Total job listings practically doubled that for any similar period during 1948.

U.S. Steel Accused Of Attempting To Force Big Strike

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 15.—(AP)—President Philip Murray of the CIO United Steelworkers today charged the giant United States Steel Corporation is "deliberately seeking to force a strike."

The accusation came in a telegram the union leader addressed to U. S. Steel President Benjamin F. Fairless.

Murray again insisted that U. S. Steel accept the recommendations of President Truman's fact finding board aimed at settling steel labor difficulties.

He wired Fairless: "The union still hopes that a strike in the basic steel industry can be averted. It can be averted if your corporation and the rest of the industry will agree with the union and with public opinion to accept the recommendations of the steel industry board."

Murray's telegram replied to an overnight message from Fairless which stated U. S. Steel is unwilling to accept the board recommendations without bargaining.

The board recommended that labor and the industry work out company financed pension and insurance plans but ruled out a wage increase for steel workers.

U. S. Steel took particular exception to the board's view that the pension plan be financed entirely by the industry. It said that "as a matter of sound principle any program of social insurance should be on a contributory basis."

The telegram left the presumption clear that the big steel union will not initiate any contract negotiations unless the steel industry is willing to bear the cost of pension and insurance programs as recommended by the presidential board.

Murray told Fairless: "We are ready and willing to resume collective bargaining and to reach prompt agreement with you and the rest of the industry on the basis of the board's recommendations."

Murray said Fairless' telegram of yesterday in which the corporation bluntly refused to accept the board formula without bargaining constitutes "a flat rejection of the board's recommendations."

"It should now be plain to all," the telegram continued, "that the United States Steel Corporation See STEEL, Page 2"

Governor Shivers Continues Tour Through Mexico

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Gov. Allan Shivers and the Texas "friendship caravan" took it easy today.

The governor made two visits yesterday. One was on the joint U. S.-Mexico Affairs commission and the other on Augustin Garcia Lopez, secretary of communications.

He renewed to the latter an invitation to locate the American Association of highway officials' meeting in San Antonio, Oct. 10.

After that the governor and a few of his party went to Cuernavaca for lunch at the home of Nevill G. Penrose, newly appointed member of the Texas Good Neighbor Commission.

The friendship caravan of 150 went early this morning to see the ancient pyramids of Teotihuacan, north of here.

In the National Palace tonight, Gov. Shivers and others of the Texas group will be guests of President Miguel Aleman at the big annual Independence reception.

Ochoa's Family Will Move Soon To Mexico City

LAREDO, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Mrs. George Ochoa and her four children will move shortly to Vera Cruz, Mexico, to make their home with friends at Laredo reported today.

They said Mrs. Ochoa had sold two of her automobiles in San Antonio and was preparing to make the trip to the coastal city.

She said her husband, George Ochoa, a suave, handsome Laredo businessman disappeared into Mexico July 1, the day two men were shot to death.

George Ochoa is sought in connection with two sensational slayings. He was last seen here more than six weeks ago. Ochoa, a suave, handsome Laredo businessman disappeared into Mexico July 1, the day two men were shot to death.

He is accused of murdering Henry D. Whittenburg, 31, South Texas winner, and is wanted for questioning in the slaying of Cpl. James Lindsay, 30, of Onedia, Tenn. Whittenburg lived here and Lindsay was visiting in town.

Alice Grand Jury Hears Witnesses On Primary Vote

LICE, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Clarence Martens, chairman of the Jim Wells Democratic Executive Committee during the Aug. 28, 1949 primary, went before a grand jury here today.

The grand jury is investigating results of a U. S. senate race between Lyndon B. Johnson and Coke R. Stevenson, Johnson won the million-vote primary by 27 votes. Later Stevenson charged 200 "fraudulent" votes were added in Precinct 13 at Alice after the polls closed. Johnson has been serving as U. S. senator and is now seated in term.

Martens entered the grand jury room as the jury went into its sixth day of session.

Subpoenaed and waiting to testify were:

1. B. F. (Tom) Donald, secretary of the executive committee for the Jim Wells Democratic Executive Committee during the primary, federal marshals were unable to serve a subpoena on Donald. His wife said he left town and she did not know how long he would be gone. He returned to Alice the day after the federal inquiry closed. Donald is cashier of an Alice bank owned by George E. Parr.

2. Luis Salas, presiding election judge at box 13, Salas testified at the federal probe that he "borrowed" the poll and tally lists for box 13 from Donald. Salas testified that the lists were stolen from his parked automobile.

New Deal Senator Truman's Choice For High Court

Rutledge Successor Is Selected By Chief Executive

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Sherman Minton of Indiana, who battled in vain for the 1937 Roosevelt plan to put younger blood on the supreme court, today was chosen by President Truman to serve on that bench.

Minton in 1937 a Democratic, pro-new deal senator, now a judge of the Seventh U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals. That court has headquarters at Chicago and embraces the states of Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin.

President Truman opened a news conference by announcing his choice of Minton to succeed the late Justice Wiley B. Rutledge on the nation's highest court.

He also announced that: Judge Walter C. Lindley of the U. S. court for the eastern district of Illinois will succeed Minton on the appellate court.

Casper Platte, now a circuit judge of Illinois, will succeed Lindley.

Now 58, Minton is a Democrat and a Protestant, but his wife is Catholic.

There had been speculation before the appointment that Mr. Truman might choose a Catholic to the high court. The death of Justice Frank Murphy in July removed the only member of that faith from the court. Mr. Truman appointed Attorney General Tom Clark, a Protestant, to succeed Murphy.

Minton, a lawyer of New Albany, Ind., was elected to the senate in 1934. His senate career was next to that of Senator Harry Truman of Missouri and the two became friends.

As a senator, Minton was an ardent "new dealer" and a vigorous fighter for the Roosevelt administration's measures designed to add new justices to the supreme court to the number of those over age 70 who did not retire.

At the age of the justices understood, the plan would have enlarged the court from nine to 15 members. The court of that time had declared unconstitutional major legislation which the President backed as essential to the country.

With the shifting of political tides, Minton was defeated for reelection to the senate in 1940, by Raymond E. Willis, Republican.

Government Acts To Break Up Big Food Store Chain

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Attorney General J. Howard McGrath today filed suit to break up the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company's nationwide food chain.

The civil action was brought in federal district court at New York City this morning.

It is a follow-up to a criminal conviction of the A. and P. Company under the anti-trust statutes at Danville, Ill., in 1946.

The conviction was affirmed in the U. S. Court of Appeals at Chicago early this year and the company paid fines totaling $175,000.

The action in New York requests that the nationwide food store chain be separated into manufacturing and processing business and to separate its present seven retail store divisions into seven independently owned retail food chains.

The Justice Department proposes to dissolve the Atlantic Company, A. and P.'s wholesale purchasing and sales agent in the produce markets.

Then the proposed break-up of the present national chain into seven independent companies, A. and P. itself would not be permitted to own more than one such division, probably covering about 800 stores, to be operated as a retail chain.

Repair Work On 'Y' Plant Completed; Report of Summer Program Tendered

Repair and maintenance work on the Corsicana YMCA plant being carried out during the past several months is virtually completed, and the organization is looking back on a successful summer of operation, according to a report tendered recently by officers and board members of the organization.

Projects carried out include re-glazing and painting of all windows in the building, and painting of the entire building front on Twelfth street; lighting of the lawn on the south side of the building to facilitate the playing of outdoor games at night, and refinishing of the gymnasium floor.

Magnolia Petroleum Co. and the Texas Power and Light Co.

Chest Agency.
The YMCA, a Corsicana Community Chest agency, is 55 percent self-supporting, and the Chest contributes the remaining 45 percent. The report stated that all obligations are paid to date and that the organization will probably complete the year's work within the 1949 budget of $17,710.

A complete tally of the activities at the YMCA during the past summer was included in the report, and it showed that the "Y" again furnished wholesome recreation and entertainment to a large segment of Corsicana's youth.

Swim Program.
The tally showed that 48 boys and 36 girls have learned to swim at the Y this past summer—as far as is known the largest such program in the city or county. Average daily attendance for the boys' gym and swim classes was 25 Preps (9 through 13 years), 21 Juniors (12 through 14 years), and 12 Intermediates (15 through 18).

The average daily attendance of school age girls has been 7 and of businessmen 10, at the Tuesday and Friday afternoon swim periods. The Friday night Family Swim period attracted an average of 12 spectators and 35 swimmers.

In addition, an average of 70 persons per day play lobby games. The Y has 29 rooms for rent and serves through this hotel about 100 persons per year—chiefly young men in beginning positions of employment or in junior college. All incoming guests purchase an annual membership in the YMCA.

A total of 210 boys, 185 girls and women and 50 men had memberships in good standing during the summer.

Active Board.
An active and interested board of directors serves the local organization, and an average attendance of about 90 percent is present at each session, which are held once monthly except during July and August.

Members of the board are: J. F. Adams, president; H. C. Allen, H. T. Braselton, Joe E. Butler, Bill Bruns, Tom Eady, P. T. Fullwood, Fred Harvey, L. A. Johnson, Jr., W. P. McCammon, W. E. A Close Guess.
AUSTIN, Sept. 15.—(AP)—State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert's estimate of general revenue for the last fiscal year was shown today to have been nearly perfect.

Calvert estimated revenue at $102,934,871. It turned out that $105,815,980 came in. The variation was 2.8 per cent.

Legislative appropriations are limited by the comptroller's estimate of general revenue income.

British Strikes Spread.
LONDON, Sept. 15.—(AP)—New demands for wage boosts spread labor unrest today from England into Scotland and Northern Ireland. Transport, electrical, and mining industries were the targets of workers fighting against the labor government's efforts to freeze pay scales.

STEEL

and the other steel producers who are slavishly following the pattern of refusal set by United States Steel are deliberately seeking to force a strike upon the union and upon the American people.

The labor leader declared that if a strike comes September 25, when the current strike truce ends, "the responsibility for such strike clearly and unmistakably will rest with United States Steel and the other producers in the industry."

The telegram to Fairless also said "You (Fairless) presume to dictate that any plan of social insurance and pensions shall be bargained upon only on the basis of a contributory program."

"You assert that this is a matter of fundamental principle, notwithstanding that you, Mr. Fairless, and other executives in your corporation and in the industry will enjoy substantial pensions upon retirement based upon non-contributory programs created by the industry for the benefit of its executives rather than its workers."

Murray told Fairless the union accepted the board's recommendations "as a basis on which to conclude a prompt settlement" notwithstanding "our regret that the board recommend against any way increase at this time." He added the union accepted "in the hope of averting a steel strike on September 25."

Murray forced the issue yesterday. He told Fairless the union is not satisfied with Fairless' initial answer that bargaining be resumed—without committing Big Steel to the board's findings.

It didn't take a long time to reply. Within a few hours he told Murray the labor chief can't dictate U. S. Steel's acceptance of the board's recommendations as a condition to bargaining.

But Fairless reiterated he is perfectly willing to resume negotiations. Murray didn't comment. His aides said they don't know when or if, he will.

The board suggested this peace formula:
1. The union should give up demands for a wage increase.
2. Labor and industry should work out company financed pension plans to go into effect next year.

3. The union and company should work out now satisfactory insurance plans—also paid for by employers.

Sure You Haven't A "Blind Spot"?

As I was driving down Main Street last Saturday, another car swung out right in front of me. It wasn't going fast. It was just that he had something else on his mind at that particular moment.

Buck's really one of the nicest fellows I've ever known. But, sometimes he gets to day-dreaming on the road. He sort of gets a "blind spot" to what's going on about him!

Now, lots of normally considerate folks have their "blind spots."

New Farm Storage Tanks Described For Corn-Grains

Four representatives of the Navarro County Vocational Training School investigated the possibilities of storage bins being used for corn, wheat and combine maize in Collin county last week, according to H. K. Henley, instructor of the Kereans No. 2 class.

The PMA makes loans to farmers to purchase these storage tanks—up to 85 percent of the total cost, at the rate of 4 percent interest, to be repaid in five years.

The local PMA office here can make these loans to Navarro county, according to Henley, and further information can be secured there.

The storage tanks are shipped from Kansas City. They are made of corrugated steel and are 13-8 in diameter, 1-2 feet tall and will hold 1,000 bushels of shelled corn or approximately 570 bushels of ear corn. They come unassembled and are put together with stove bolts. They have a metal bottom and may be mounted on a 14x14 inch foundation made either from concrete or rough lumber nailed to cross-ties. They can be delivered to Corsicana for $253.55 in lots of 10. (This is minus the foundation.)

These tanks are rat-proof and afford excellent facilities where a farmer is interested primarily in storage of grain or other crops.

Those making the inspection trip to Collin county were Jack Lewis, Troy Cooley, Emory Budal and Henley.

78 Are Killed Or Wounded In Korea

SEOUL, Sept. 15.—(P)—Seventy-eight persons were killed or wounded today in a break by 430 prisoners from the jail at Mokpo, a seaport 200 miles south of here.

The prisoners staged their break yesterday while being returned to prison from work farms. They seized guns and ammunition and fled to the hills.

THE NATION TODAY

By OVID A. MARTIN (For James Marlow)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—(P)—Uncle Sam is having a much easier time with surplus potatoes this year than last.

The reason is that there are fewer of them and the grower price guarantee is lower.

If the government announced $225,000,000 to carry out its price promise on the 1948 crop. Agriculture department officials believe the cost this year will be less than $50,000,000.

Last year's program, which the department only recently wound up, was costly because the crop was about 136,000,000 bushels more than consumers wanted. This was a record surplus.

Here is how the program operated:

Before the 1948 crop was planted the department deemed necessary to produce the potatoes consumers were expected to take.

Growers did not plant so many acres as the goal, but more potatoes were produced on each acre than had been counted on.

The surplus developed, and the government said in effect to the grower:

"If you can't get the equivalent of the price guarantee in the market we will buy your potatoes at that price."

The price guarantee averaged about $1.65 a bushel, although it varied by grades and seasons.

The 1949 price support program is designed to assure growers an average of about $1.20 a bushel about 45 cents less than last year. The surplus this year may not run over 30,000,000 bushels compared with 136,000,000 last year. About 350,000,00 bushels are used for food and other purposes.

A barbecue will be held in the afternoon and a reception is planned at the W. P. Eckhardt home when the farmers and their wives will greet Congressman and Mrs. Teague.

The main program is planned at the high school auditorium Saturday night.

Murray Cox, Dallas agriculturalist, will be master of ceremonies. Local committee chairmen and co-chairmen include:

they don't try to pin you down to dates and sports events. She enjoys music and would rather have a date with a boy who likes music. She says:

"It's disgraceful the way some boys drag their dates to football or baseball games, and just let them sit there beating feet. If girls like sports, fine. But it shouldn't be forced on them."

The trouble with most dates, today, as Barbara sees it, is that boys aren't as mature as girls their own age. You have to go out with boys much older than you—at least five years—to enjoy conversation. Younger boys do not even show proper respect towards girls, much less treat them like ladies, she says. And they never are good listeners.

Barbara says she doesn't particularly care, though, because she doesn't have much time for dates anyhow, with rehearsals, singing lessons and occasional recreation such as bicycling and swimming, which she loves.

She thinks radio is the ideal career although she'd give it up to be a writer, her first love. She insists any girl who has a hankering for radio or the stage should give herself a fair trial at it. Says she:

"How are you going to get started doing something you like, if you just go to school because your parents want you to? The trouble is too many people send their kids to school to get them off the street, whereas, if they'd let them do something they are genuinely interested in, perhaps they'd amount to something."

Barbara had lots of support in her desire for a theatrical career. Her father, the late Richard Whiting, penned "Sleeping Beauty" and other popular tunes. Her sister is a vocalist.

If you like radio, Barbara's ad-

MONEY FOR TITO

In August the United States granted Yugoslavia a license for purchase of a steel mill, breaking the policy against export of any "war potential" goods or machinery to Russian satellite nations. Now, it appears, we also will lend Yugoslavia the money with which to pay for this mill and a number of other things. The authorization of the steel mill purchase presumably was a gamble on widening of the rift between Belgrade and Moscow. The recently announced loan of twenty million dollars must be presumed to involve a horse trade, inasmuch as it is to be made through the Export-Import Bank, the function of which is to aid and finance trade with the United States.

Officials laid stress on plans to develop the non-ferrous metals industries of Yugoslavia, some of which might perchance supply metals needed by the United States for the uses of both ordinary and defense industries. It is hoped officials were sufficiently hard-headed about the Yugoslav loan to get some firm commitment regarding these metals and possibly other items of trade. It might be too much to assume such, since some Americans are pretty soft-headed about anything which can be pictured as opposition to Russian Communism.

In playing the game of power politics, which is what the United States is doing, gambles must be taken. Dealing with Marshal Tito's dictatorship is admittedly a long-odds gamble. All odds are that the Tito quarrel with the Kremlin might be short-lived; indeed it might be even a sham. But if the break is permanent, it could shake the whole structure of Russian influence. It ought to be a good gamble.

NEW FINDS IN ALASKA

Geographers have not completed their task of mapping the world, even for a region as relatively accessible as Alaska. Bradford Washburn, director of the Boston Science Museum, announces that two unrecorded mountains have been found in the Mt. McKinley region. Both are over 12,000 feet high. Washburn would like one to receive the name of Joe Crosson, a Veteran Alaska pilot who few the bodies of Will Rogers and Wiley Post to Seattle after their fatal crash in 1935.

Mt. McKinley itself was not really discovered until 1896, though the Russians had left vague record of it during their ownership of Alaska prior to our purchase in 1867. The Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes, that Arctic Yellowstone, was not found until 1915. The new finds suggest that Alaska still has secrets to yield to the dauntless explorer.

PLEASURE AND WORK

Take pleasure only as a friend
Who comes to call when duty is done.
And the exacting duties end,
And nothing further can be won.
Then put your burdens all away
And carefree give your heart to play.

But if there be one task to do,
One duty given to you in trust,
Answer, when pleasure calls to you,
That to perform it first you must.

When you must choose 'twixt task and play,
Let your choice be at work to stay.

Pleasure is friendly when it's earned,
But it can be man's bitterest

When from his duty he has turned,
Its few enticing joys to know.
Happiest they are, and peace of mind have they,
Whose tasks completed set them

icine and its allied arts. Sponsored by the Unitarian service committee and the International Refugee Organization, a medical mission consisting of fourteen doctors and dentists from the United States, one from Canada and one from London, recently conducted refresher courses for German medical men. The project was carried out in a hospital in Munich and a dental school in Hamburg.

Modern textbooks were furnished to take the place of antiquated books. Lack of a blood-bank at the hospital in Munich impelled the members of the mission to work with the military government and local health authorities to provide one.

Proper health facilities and expert care of the sick are especially important for a people whose vitality is low from malnutrition, who in most cases are living in substandard housing. Outside help is necessary through the long pull to achieve normal conditions. This medical mission is one of the more important projects carried out by service and refugee organizations.

Advisory Committee Is Named To Aid In Campaign For Navarro Jr. College

The advisory committee in charge of the campaign for the $540,000 bond issue submitted to the property-tax-paying citizens of Navarro county, Sept. 22, was announced Wednesday.

The county will decide whether or not the $540,000 bonds be issued to construct a permanent home for the Navarro Junior College on the 40-acre campus located on Highway 31 in the western section of Corsicana. The college at the present time is being conducted at the old Corsicana Field, Air Activities of Texas, site southeast of the city. Officials of the college say that the lease on that location expires in about 3-1-2 years.

The question being submitted in the junior college election also is whether or not 20 cents be levied for the retirement of the $840,000 bonds and also whether an eight-cent maintenance tax be levied to support the physical plant if erected.

Q. L. Lubertson, former trustee of the college and long prominent in school affairs, both as an executive and for years at the head of the county school board, is chairman of the advisory committee conducting the campaign. Other members are Mrs. W. H. Hastings, Corsicana; J. C. Watson, Corsicana, county school superintendent; W. V. Harrison, Frost; Drew Gillen, Blooming Grove; Mrs. H. R. Stroube, president of the Corsicana Board of Education; Mrs. F. A. Pierce, Mrs. J. W. McAdams, Mrs. J. F. Adams, F. B. McKie, Mrs. Clark Butler, president of the Navarro County Parent Teachers Association; J. M. Dyer, Ralph Stell, all of Corsicana.

W. B. Chauncey, Dawson; Dr. Gurley H. Sanders, Kerens; Guy Campbell, Richland; Jack Everheart, president of the Corsicana Dads Club; Earl Seale, Kerens; Dr. E. H. Newton, Corsicana; L. B. Bonner, Eureka; L. C. Boswell, Barry; Mrs. J. K. Bradley, Rice; Louis Wolens, Herman; Robert Sydney Martin, W. P. Brown, Jack Sisico, N. Suttle Roberts and Dr. Leslie E. Kelton, Jr., all of Corsicana.

There will be a change in the voting places in this election. College officials have stressed the new Glimmer-Alkin proceedings in which one voting place is provided in each school district. In

Game Warden Says Unlawful To Keep Wolves In Texas

It is unlawful for any person, private citizen or officer, to do anything with live wolves except to run or kill them, Fred L. Gilliam of Athens, game warden, formerly of Corsicana stated here Monday afternoon.

Gilliam said he had heard of some persons in Navarro county having live wolves in their possession. It is a felony and Gilliam exhibited the law in the Game Code whereby conviction of violating the statutes relating to wolves carries a penalty of not less than six months nor more than five years in the penitentiary. The law quoted points out that it is unlawful to transport any live wolf within the State of Texas; it is unlawful to possess or receive for the purpose of transporting or for the turning loose of any live wolf; it is unlawful for any state or county official, in the performance of any official duty, to transport a live wolf for a circus, zoo or menagerie, or for exhibition or scientific purpose.

Moyne L. Kelly Takes Over Newly-Created State Post

Moyne L. Kelly assumed his duties Tuesday as executive director of the newly-created state board for hospitals and special schools. He was elected by the board from a field of 13 candidates Monday after a month's study and interviews. The job, which pays $10,000 a year, calls for aiding the board in overseeing 22 state eleemosynary institutions and hospitals, caring for 22,000 mental patients and other wards and supervising the activities of 4,000 employees. Kelly, 48, was one of the first applicants. He rose from a ward of the State Home here in 1910 whose duties once included the cleaning of dairy barns and other tasks to the superintendency of the institution in 1944. Graduating from the Home as valedictorian of his class in 1918 after participating in all school activities, he later received degrees from Baylor University while working at the Methodist Home in Waco. He has practically finished the work for his Ph.D. degree at the University of Texas. Kelly left Corsicana shortly after being advised of his election late Monday afternoon to report to Austin where his headquarters will be opened. He did not know when he would return to Corsicana, but expects to be back the latter part of the week. Following his graduation at the State Home Kelly entered Southern Methodist University, Dallas, in September, 1919, and after a serious illness with influenza, left the following month and spent the winter and following spring in Arkansas. He and Helen Marguerite Jones, his school sweetheart, were married December 18, 1919, at Eastland and after several months in Arkansas, worked at the State Home here part of 1920. Kelly and his wife served in various capacities during the 12 years they were connected with the Methodist Home in Waco. He was manager of the broom factory, dairy and stock farm, gardens, orchards, dean of boys while attending Baylor University and later was principal of the school. His A. B. degree from Baylor was received May 29, 1929, and his M. A. degree was conferred August 13, 1930. Prominent in the Methodist church as a steward and Sunday School teacher, Kelly is also a Mason and Rotarian, serving as president of the Corsicana Rotary Club. Kelly taught school for several years and later was principal and superintendent. His school connections included Leatherwood, Crosby county; Roosevelt Consolidated School, Lubbock county; and Patton Springs Consolidated School, Dickens county. He was the organizer and first president of the Crosby County Teachers Association and later was president of the Lubbock County Teachers. Moving to Austin in 1941, he secured a job as a night guard at Camp Mabry and entered the graduate school of the University of Texas at the same time his eldest daughter, now Mrs. W. A. Burns, enrolled as a freshman. He became educational director of Austin State School in July, 1942 and continued his studies until his appointment to the State Home superintendency here. His youngest daughter, Betty Lou Kelly, is a senior in State Home High School. The State Home here will be one of the 22 state institutions under Kelly's supervision.

Square Dance Is Largely Attended Tuesday Night

Persons from far and near—about 2,000 of them, despite the fact a square dance was being held at the Corsicana Country Club—attended the Jinx Busters square dance in downtown Corsicana Tuesday night.

The crowd started to gather shortly before eight p. m., and by the time festivities got under way both sides of Benton street from Fifth avenue to Collin street were jammed. At least 10 square dance sets were going all the while the dance was on.

The dance was sponsored by the Jinx Busters to create interest in the 13th annual Corsicana Livestock and Agricultural Show, which runs from Sept. 27 through Oct. 1.

Prizes for the most colorfully-dressed dancers were awarded to the following:

Cowboy, Leo Sands; cowgirl, Mrs. Charlie Stough; couple, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Burkholder, and square-dance set, the Boyd-Farmer-Lee-Hardgrave octet.

Music was furnished by the Long Trio, composed of Elvin and Ernest Long, Robert Minatra and Preston Williams, and by the Stephens' String orchestra, composed of Ivy Stephens, Martin Whitfield, Earl Madden and Bud Breedlove.

Everybody Is Interested In The Educational Advantages Of Our Children

As the Navarro County Junior College is growing, and will continue to grow, for the benefit of our children, and as the old plant now being used must be vacated very soon, the Junior College officials and the public see the need for plans for the extension of the College as a permanent educational institution in our County. No better investment could be made for our children than to make available every educational advantage we can give them.

To inform the Navarro County Citizens of the plans for the new and enlarged Junior College to be voted upon on September 22nd, the following information is given, with questions and answers—

Read these questions and answers over carefully so that you will become acquainted with the facts and figures relative to the College Bond issue to be voted upon. Here they are:

Q. Why have a Junior College in Navarro County?

A. Our seventeen-year-old boys and girls profit greatly by the two additional years of home and church influence. Small classes with individual attention give the student a better opportunity in his higher educational pursuits.

Q. What educational opportunities are offered by Navarro Junior College?

A. A two-year course in all fields of academic preparation. Complete business training of one and two years.

Q. What will this modern college plant cost the taxpayer?

A. A tax rate of 20c per $100.00 valuation for maturing the bonds. An 8c tax per $100.00 valuation for maintenance of the plant. This increase in tax rate will cost the taxpayer only 28c per $100 of property rendered.

Q. What type of bond is to be voted in the $540,000.00 bond election?

A. The bond issue will be for twenty years with an equal amount to be paid each year. The bonds will bear no more than 3 per cent interest coupons and will be sold to the highest bidder after proper advertised notice. (It is estimated by responsible bond houses that the net interest cost to the county will not be more than 2½ per cent per year.)

Q. Where will the new college be located?

A. The location of the new college will be on Highway 31, west of Corsicana on a 46-acre site now owned by the college.

Q. What will be done with the temporary buildings now in use?

A. The eleven frame buildings now in use were donated to the college by the Federal government. They will be salvaged and used in the construction of the new plant.

Q. What is the financial condition of the Navarro Junior College?

A. At the end of its third fiscal year, ending August 31st, 1949, the college was free of debt.

Q. Will taxes be assessed and collected for 1949?

A. No.

Q. Does a student get full credit for work done in the Navarro Junior College when going to higher educational institutions?

A. Yes. All Texas universities and colleges accept all credits received in Navarro Junior College.

Q. When will I vote?

A. Thursday, Sept. 22nd, between the hours of 8 A. M. and 7 P. M.

Q. Where will I vote?

A. At your school district voting box (List of 20 printed in folder).

Q. On what condition will the State apportionment to junior colleges be granted after 1952?

A. The $175.00 per student State apportionment which we now receive will be withdrawn unless we have permanent buildings.

Q. What will be the present attendance at the College?

A. Approximately 600 students.

Q. What will be the potential capacity of the new College Plant when completed?

A. Approximately 1000 students.

Q. When will the new plant be completed when bonds are voted?

A. The new plant must be completed not later than September 1952.

Q. If the public wants to know anything else about this much needed educational project for the children of our county where can we get it?

A. By asking any member of the Junior College Board of Trustees, Administration Officers, Faculty and members of the Advisory Board.

Q. Who are the members of the Board of Trustees, Administration Officers and Faculty now operating the Navarro County Junior College?

A. They are as follows—

Board of Trustees: John R. Corley, Corsicana, President; A. L. Bain, Kerens, Vice President; Lloyd K. Carraway, Corsicana, Secretary; L. B. Dawson, Corsicana, Treasurer; J. W. Richards, Richland; Bruce McCormick, Blooming Grove; Curtis Patterson, Frost; O. L. Albritton, Past President, Corsicana; L. B. Bonner, Past Vice President, Eureka.

Administration Officers: Ray L. Waller, President; Gaston T. Gooch, Dean-Registrar; Margaret Berry, Dean of Women.

Faculty Members are as follows: R. L. Arnold, Business Administration; O. B. Ballew, Social Science; C. E. Beene, Music and Band; K. H. Clark, Coach and P. E.; M. S. Cook, English and Speech; Lucile Boyd, Spanish and Education; Thelma Conitz, Business Administration; James H. Edgar, Chemistry; Paul D. Floyd, Social Science; W. G. Two of the missionaries assisting with the association school of missions being conducted under the leadership of the Baptist Training Union are the Rev. John L. Bice, left, and Miss Lillie Mae Hundley. The Rev. Bice, missionary to Brazil, is home in Denton on furlough. Miss Hundley is visiting in Claude before returning to duty in China.

Attendance at the eighteen schools, being served by nine missionaries, has been good and is increasing, according to Mrs. Jack Baggett, associational director, who has urged Corsicana Baptists to avail themselves of an unusual and inspirational opportunity to hear these guest speakers give information out of their wide experience in mission work.

MINTON
Minton went back to Indiana, but President Roosevelt quickly called him back to Washington and named him as one of his administrative assistants. On May 7, 1941, President Roosevelt appointed him to the circuit court of appeals.

In 1938, Minton received wide publicity when he introduced legislation proposing to make it a felony to publish a "known untruth" about anyone. It drew him into heated exchanges with Col. Robert R. McCormick of the Chicago Tribune and other publishers. The proposal never got anywhere in congress.

FIRST ASSEMBLY
The first assembly program of the Fall semester at the Navarro Junior College was held Tuesday morning at the college auditorium. L. K. Carraway, Corsicana, secretary of the board of trustees of the college, welcomed the students. Ray L. Waller, president of the college, spoke on "The Value of College Education, Junior Colleges in Particular."

James Fuller, Conroe, president of the student body, welcomed the freshmen, while Leroy Hendon, Corsicana, head cheer leader, spoke about the selection of six assistant cheer leaders for the approaching football season.

New Instructions Issued By VA For Vets Education

New instructions pertaining to the vocational rehabilitation and education program have been received by Dr. George T. McMahon, manager, Veterans Administration Center, Waco, according to Robert C. Reeder, local contact representative of the VA.

These new instructions have been issued to preserve the underlying spirit of the education and training provisions of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act and to safeguard the interests of the veteran and the government.

Under the new regulations, according to Reeder, the veteran shows on his application the name of the course and the institution at which course is to be pursued. All certificates of eligibility and entitlement issued by the VA will show the name of the course and the approved educational or training institution.

Veterans desiring to commence an additional course, full-time or otherwise, must submit a complete justification with their application, setting forth reasons why the course is essential to their employment. Similar justifications must be sent in by any veteran who wishes to re-enter training after having discontinued his course for education or training either of his own volition or because his progress has been unsatisfactory. Those desiring to change courses must similarly submit a written statement setting forth the reasons.

Contributions To Polio Fund

G. C. Hudson, Corsicana postmaster, is receiving polio contributions and will forward the amount to the proper authorities, he announced Wednesday.

There is a nation-wide campaign to aid in the polio fight with the postmasters receiving contributions and forwarding them.

Just send your contribution to the postmaster and it will reach the proper authorities.

GREATEST PULLING-TIRE ON EARTH!

A recent coast-to-coast farm survey shows that Goodyear's open center tractor tire is America's first choice by a rapidly growing margin.

The simple reason is — farm experience confirms that Goodyear has told the truth about traction; that Goodyear's o-p-e-n c-e-n-t-e-r Sure-Grip tread, with its evenly balanced, deep biting gear-type lugs, gives the steadiest, strongest pull ever built into a farm tractor tire.

Two-Way Radio System Now Being Used By Sheriff's Cars

By CLYDE E. JOHNSON
Daily Sun Staff

There's nothing old-fashioned about the Navarro County Sheriff's Department.

Another modernistic step was taken this week—installation of two-way radio systems.

The department's chief, 33-year-old David Castles, watched with joyous satisfaction as the mobile broadcasting units were put in his car and in those of his two riding deputies, R. E. Jones and Dick Salter.

Castles glowed with pride when tests were completed, and the system was in operation. Still to be installed is a central station in the courthouse, with a remote control device in the county jail.

When he took office on January 1, 1947, young Castles—an infant compared to other older Texas sheriffs—had little to work with. He saw the need of up-to-date practices of crime detection and law enforcement.

So he got busy. First, he decided to learn something about his new job. Although he once was a deputy, Castles' experience still was inadequate; and he attended a state school for police officers, winning his diploma.

Inefficient filing systems, lack of fingerprinting and photographing equipment, and a jail that wasn't approved as "safe" by the Justice Department, greeted him as he assumed office.

About a year ago the jail was given badly needed repairs upon authorization of the Commissioners' Court, and new locks and doors were installed. A special room was set aside for "mugging" criminals, fingerprinting and photographing them.

During the years 1947 and 1948, more than 2,000 prisoners passed through the barred doors of the county bastille, with the sheriff's department claiming credit for 839 of the arrests.

But as Castles says, "I don't care who arrests who, just so a criminal is caught."

A staunch advocate of local control and administration of law enforcement, the sheriff still insists that co-operation of all police agencies is necessary to provide efficient service.

The sheriff's big dream, though, was the radio systems. He had pleaded for funds from the Commissioners' Court on several occasions, citing other counties' progressiveness.

Deputies now can talk to each other from car to car, any where in the county; and the central station will be able to communicate with the State Department of Public Safety at Arlington.

Daredevil Acts Slated Saturday At Local Track

A thrilling, spectacular and dangerous show "Hell on Wheels" will be presented at the Corsicana speedway west of Corsicana on Highway 31 Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Ricky Burke is the promoter and the main performer in this show. He has appeared in various movies in his "leap of death" act, that culminates the show—the running of a car up a ramp at such a speed that it leaps five cars and a truck.

The thrill circus, according to Burke, also includes a motorcycle crashing through a burning wall, rolling a car over at 60 miles per hour, ski jumping, and other stunts.

ONLY RIGID MORAL STANDARDS CAN SAVE OUR CIVILIZATION

Ancient Hebrew Psalmist Distinguishes Between Right And Wrong—Modern Relative Conceptions Of Morality Invite Chaos—Acknowledgment Of Sin Indispensable For Any Moral System

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS and EARL L. DOUGLASS.

Nobody denies that a glaring aspect of the post-war civilization the whole world around has been its flagrant flouting of the old Christian standards of conduct and of personal responsibility. "Do as you please, express yourself," has been the accepted rule of conduct. The four R's of a truly civilized life—Retinence, Refinement, Reverence, and Religion—have been thrown into the discard. Flamboyant selfishness has had the right of way. The Ten Commandments have openly been scorned as out of date. Chastity has been considered no longer sacred and binding in the lives of myriads. Plain honesty has been conspicuously lacking in high business circles. A lie is considered a social convenience. The Sabbath Day has been widely and rapidly secularized. Intemperance and divorce have become fairly fashionable. Pleasure has been made the chief end of men—and Women. Careless coding is more common than concern for one's soul. Honor and the sanctity of the pledged word have largely disappeared from the relations between many nations. Public worship has declined or become perfunctory. Verily we have been giving the devil his due—and denying God His due.

Bible Standards of Right.

These conditions are not peculiar to the modern world, although they appear today in a particularly aggravated form. Even God's chosen people, the Israelites, had many backslidings. It was these, perhaps, which prompted the Psalmist in the Sunday school lesson for this week to outline a system of morality, to demonstrate what it was that characterized the godly man. The righteous man "walketh uprightly," which means he is sincere in his intention to do the right thing, every time; he refrains from getting his neighbor into trouble by slander and false witness, he does not seek to benefit from the distresses of the unfortunate by lending money at high rates of interest. On the contrary, he speaks the truth at all times and seeks to be a co-operative member of society.

Moderns Change Standards. One might say with justification today that this is a view of morality which is true as far as it goes but which offers little of benefit today. Any such criticism would certainly be valid, but on the other hand the Psalmist presents his system, primitive as it is, in the only terms in which morality has meaning—as an absolute system of right and wrong. In this respect he is far ahead of our present-day refined but ineffective moral teaching. Things are right or wrong only in relation to the person who does them, says the modern moralist. Drinking is wrong only when it does harm to the drinker; unchastity is wrong only if it has a bad effect upon the unchaste person or anyone connected with him; dishonesty is a relative matter, and its standards are determined not by absolute criteria but by the particular society in which one finds oneself.

According to such a philosophy of life, morality is another word for custom. It changes as fashions change and has no more sacredness about it than the thousand little daily mannerisms by which we become normal members of society.

This view of morality is particularly devastating to the standards of any civilization. Since it lowers morality to the level of convenience, there is obviously no reason to be moral if it entails the slightest sacrifice. If there is no standard of right and wrong for everyone, there is really no standard at all, and we are reduced in practice, if not in theory, to a group morality far below that of the ancient Jew.

It is this situation which is largely responsible for the deplorable moral conditions in the world today. To make us moderns all conscious of our sin, and of its heinousness, is the function of prophets who would wear the mantle of our Psalmist. Our ears seem to be dulled to an awareness of national sinning. Yet sin is at the root of all our evils today. The word sin itself is out of fashion, termed an anachronism from a bygone age.

Seven Sentence Sermons. Some would divorce morality from religion, but religion is the root without which morality would die.—C. A. Bartol.

Morality, taken as apart from religion, it but another name for decency in sin.—Horace Bushnell.

When the scourge Inexorable, and the torturing hour Calls us to penance. —Milton.

Slanderers are like flies, that pass all over a man's good parts to light only on his sores.—Rule of Life.

Cause me to hear thy loving kindness in the morning; for in thee do I trust.—Psalms 143:8.

Poetry is itself a thing of God. He made his prophets poets; and the more We feel of poeise do we become Like God in love and power—under-makers. —Bailey.

The roses of pleasure seldom last long enough to adorn the brow of him who plucks them, and they are the only roses which do not retain their sweetness after they have lost their beauty.—Blair.

Here Are A Few Expressions In Behalf Of Your Navarro County Junior College

There are thousands of other citizens in Navarro County who endorse the Junior College for our County. By voting for the Navarro County Junior College you will bring the College to our front door for our children to take advantage of instead of sending them far away from home at much expense to other distant colleges.

By having a modern Junior College at home—Navarro County will save thousands of dollars every year, and at the same time have our children at home during the first two years of their college life.

Here are a few expressions endorsing the College—

"The Navarro Junior College is undoubtedly one of our most valuable institutions. It provides the only possible means whereby many of our young people are able to obtain a higher education."—J. C. WATSON, County Superintendent.

"A higher education is practically a 'must' if a young person expects to be able to meet the competition in business or employment nowadays. The Junior College with its county-wide system of transportation enable our children to stay at home and attend school. This system brings the advantages of higher education practically to our doors."—DR. E. H. NEWTON.

"I believe one of the most significant things about our Junior College is the fact that it has not only paid its own way since it was established, but through good management and foresight of the administrators and board of trustees more than $100,000 worth of equipment and a 46-acre permanent site have been accumulated. This an excellent start for any institution which is only three years old."—J. M. DYER.

"The Junior College has meant everything to many of our students. A rather large number of our student body could not attend college if they were forced to go elsewhere. The high cost of room and board, tuition and the other required costs away from home would be prohibitive for many of our group, but a two-year college education is guaranteed to hundreds of Navarro county boys and girls who can live at home and be of great financial assistance to their parents."—JAMES FULLER, Student Body President, Junior College.

"The Junior College is good business for our county. It keeps money at home that would be spent elsewhere if we sent our children away to college. Besides that it save parents of Navarro County several thousand dollars per year in general educational costs."—L. B. BONNER, Eureka.

"Within the comparatively short period of three years, with the enthusiasm and co-operation of all concerned, we have been able to make of Navarro Junior College a two-year college of the first class. Its work is accepted in full by the leading colleges and universities of the nation. We have a faculty second to none and the equipment is a credit to any college. Our need now is a permanent home."—RAY L. WALLER, President, Navarro Junior College.

WHY THE MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILROAD STRIKE?

Over twenty years ago, the Congress of the United States passed the Railway Labor Act. It was hailed by union leaders as a model for the settlement of labor disputes.

THE LEADERS of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, Order of Railway Conductors, and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen on the Missouri Pacific Railroad have refused to avail themselves of the peaceful means provided by this Act for settling their disputes. They insist that they be the sole umpire of their own disputes over the meaning of contracts.

There is no Need for Strikes

With all of the available methods for the interpretation of contracts, there is no need for a strike or even a threat of a strike, but the leaders of these railroad unions have ignored the ordinary procedures established by law and insist upon imposing their own interpretations of their contracts by means of a strike.

The wheels have stopped rolling on the Missouri Pacific. They may stop rolling on other railroads at any time. Recently the Wabash Railroad was forced to discontinue operation for several days under similar circumstances.

What are These Strikes About?

These strikes and strike threats are not about wage rates or hours. They result from disputes over the meaning of existing contracts. They cover claims for a full day's pay for less than a day's work, or for payments for services performed by others who were fully paid for the work done.

President Truman's Board Condemns Strike

There is an established legal method for handling disputes involving existing written contracts—just as there is such a method of settling any contract dispute which you may have in your daily life.

The President of the United States appointed a Fact Finding Board to investigate and adjust the Missouri Pacific dispute. This Board reported, in part, as follows:

"... It is with a deep sense of regret that we are obliged to report the failure of our mission. It seems inconceivable to us that a coercive strike should occur on one of the nation's major transportation systems, with all of the losses and hardships that would follow, in view of the fact that the Railway Labor Act provides an orderly, efficient and complete remedy for the fair and just settlement of the matters in dispute. Grievances of the character here under discussion are so numerous and of such frequent occurrence on all railroads that the general adoption of the policy pursued by the organizations in this case would soon result in the complete nullification of the Railway Labor Act."

Obviously the railroads cannot be run efficiently or economically if the leaders of the unions ignore agreements or laws.

Provisions of the Law which are Disregarded

There are five ways under the Railway Labor Act to settle disputes over the meaning of contracts:

- 1—Decision by National Railroad Adjustment Board.
- 2—Decision by System Adjustment Board for the specific railroad.
- 3—Decision by arbitration.
- 4—Decision by neutral referee.
- 5—Decision by courts.

The Missouri Pacific Railroad has been and is entirely willing to have these disputes settled in accordance with the requirements of the Railway Labor Act. Regardless of this fact, the union leaders have shut down that railroad.

Innocent bystanders Suffer Losses and Hardships

There are about 5,000 engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen on the Missouri Pacific. They are known as "operating" employees, and are the most highly paid of all employees on the nation's railroads, but their strike action has resulted in the loss of work to 22,500 other employees of the Missouri Pacific. In addition, they have imposed great inconvenience and hardship upon the public and the communities served by that railroad.

The Railway Labor Act was designed to protect the public against just such interruptions of commerce.

If these men will not comply with the provisions of the law for the settlement of such disputes, then all thinking Americans must face the question, "What is the next step?"
